From the Pastor's Desk:

Last few weeks I had been sharing with you what I saw and experienced during my short visit to the Philippines. It had been my desire for so long to visit the Philippines to learn about the beliefs, practices, customs and traditions of the Filipinos since large number of parishioners are from the Philippines. I must say that after my visit to the Philippines, my love and admiration for the Filipinos has grown tenfold. I am able to understand more now why the Filipinos are so attached to Jesus Christ, to his Church and to the priests and nuns. I sincerely wish that the expatriate Filipinos living in the US and elsewhere impart this love and affection to their children so that they too grow and remain attached to Jesus Christ and to his Church.

However, I have not forgotten about all those who helped to make this year's Fall Festival once again a success story. The chairperson of this year's Fall Festival Ms. Selena Castellanos, members of the Events committee, Pastoral Council, Financial Council, the Altar servers and their parents, the Knights of Columbus, the Youth, the Mexican cultural dance troop and all those brought food and sold them during the festival deserve a special word of appreciation for all the hard work they put in to make this event a success. In a special way I would like to express my thanks to all those who worked hard to organize the rummage sale, the Altar servers and their parents who served breakfast and Ignacio Muñoz and family who sold tacos for bringing substantial amount of income to the parish out of their hard work. The 'tacos' served by Ignacio Muñoz and family was indeed a runaway success. The taste and smell of 'tacos' was such that it even created traffic problem! Thank you and well done.

One of the strong points of our parish is the way we celebrate our Sunday liturgy. I sincerely thank all those who contribute to make our Sunday liturgy so alive and meaningful. However I feel that it would be nice if all of us come together in the main section of the church and participate in the Sunday worship. It looks odd and strange that even when there is plenty of space in the main part of the church, there are people who prefer to sit behind the priest (place where we celebrate the daily mass.) People who sit in that part of the church and those who come late for the mass and go straight to sit in that part of the church are indeed a distraction to the people who sit in the main part of the church to worship. Those who sit in the daily mass section during Sunday worship look like spectators in a game rather than worshippers. Therefore I request all those who prefer to sit in the daily mass section on Sundays to come and sit in the main part of the church and to take part actively in the Sunday worship.

We are blessed when we give

'It is more blessed to give than to receive.

Vatican Corner

The significance of many of the symbols that are found in Catholic churches and specifically in St. Peter's Basilica are very important, and knowing their meanings would be useful if you want to get the most out of a visit to the Vatican. The cross is the most recognizable symbol in the world and it is found all over the Vatican. The Basilica itself is in the shape of a cross. The Latin Cross is one we all know, where the arms of the cross are about half the size of the leg and is associated with Jesus. The Greek Cross can also be seen around the Vatican, where the arms and leg of the cross are the same length. Usually it is associated with St. Andrew who was St. Peter's brother. St. Andrew was crucified in Greece with that style of cross, thus the name Greek Cross. The figure of a man holding a sword around the Vatican represents St. Paul the Evangelist. The onetime persecutor of Christians was converted to Christianity by a vision of Jesus. Paul then tirelessly traveled throughout the world to spread the Good Word (gospels). St. Paul was eventually executed for his beliefs in Christianity but because he was a Roman citizen the law dictated that he be killed in a humane way, so he was decapitated with a sword. St. Paul can always be recognized because he holds his sword and he usually has a straight beard. Most of the time if the subject of a Catholic statue or painting is holding something that looks like it could kill, then it was probably used to kill that person. The upside down cross that appears in the Vatican is associated with St. Peter's execution by crucifixion. Legend says that St. Peter was granted a final request before his execution. He asked that he not be killed in the same way as Jesus. By putting the cross upside down a quicker death resulted because the blood rushed to the head as opposed to suffocation by the standard crucifixion. Two keys, one gold to open the gates of heaven, the other silver to close the gates of heaven are used in a bunch of different ways in the Vatican. Jesus told Peter "you are my rock, upon you I will build my church and give you the keys to heaven." After the cross, these keys are probably the most common symbol used in the Vatican. They are used on coats of arms of Popes, by themselves and directly in the hand of St. Peter. The only person who is ever shown holding the keys is St. Peter who also always has a short curly beard. All other Popes will only have the keys on their coats of arms to signify that they were or are Pope. To be continued ...

Nota de nuestro pastor

Las últimas semanas he estado compartiendo con ustedes lo que vi y experimente durante mi corta visita a las Filipinas. Había sido mi deseo por mucho tiempo visitar las Filipinas para aprender acerca de las creencias, prácticas, costumbres y tradiciones de los Filipinos, ya que un gran número de feligreses son de las Filipinas. Debo decir que después de mi visita a las Filipinas, mi amor y admiración por los Filipinos se ha multiplicado diez veces más. Soy capaz de entender más ahora por qué los Filipinos están tan apegados a Jesucristo, a su Iglesia y a los Sacerdotes y Monjas. Deseo sinceramente que los expatriados Filipinos que viven en los Estados Unidos y otros países impartan este amor y afecto a sus hijos para que también crezcan y permanezcan unidos a Jesucristo y a su Iglesia.

Sin embargo, no me he olvidado de todos aquellos que ayudaron para que el festival de Otoño de este año haya sido una vez más una historia de éxito. El Presidente del Festival de Otoño de este año, Ms. Selena Castellanos, miembros del Comité de Eventos, Consejo Pastoral, Consejo Financiero, los Monaguillos y sus padres, los Caballeros de Colón, los Jóvenes, el Grupo de Danza Cultural Mexicana y todos los que trajeron comida y vendieron durante el festival merecen una palabra especial de aprecio por todo el esfuerzo que pusieron para que este evento fuera un éxito. De manera especial, me gustaría expresar mi agradecimiento a todos aquellos que trabajaron duro para organizar la venta de objetos usados, los Monaguillos y sus padres quienes sirvieron el desayuno y Ignacio Muñoz y familia quienes vendieron tacos para traer una cantidad considerable de ingresos a la parroquia con su arduo trabajo. Los 'tacos' servidos por Ignacio Muñoz y familia fueron todo un éxito. El sabor y olor de 'tacos' fue tal que incluso creó problemas de tráfico. Gracias y bien hecho.

Uno de los puntos más fuertes de nuestra parroquia es la manera de celebrar la Liturgia Dominical. Agradezco sinceramente a todos aquellos que contribuyen a hacer nuestra Liturgia Dominical tan viva y significativa. Sin embargo, creo que sería bueno si todos se unen en la sección principal de la Iglesia y participen en la celebración del Domingo. Parece raro y extraño que incluso cuando hay suficiente espacio en la parte principal de la Iglesia, hay personas que prefieren sentarse detrás del Sacerdote (lugar donde se celebra la Misa diaria). Personas que se sientan en esa parte de la Iglesia y aquellos que llegan tarde a la Misa y van directo a sentarse en esa parte de la Iglesia, son una distracción para las personas que se sientan en la parte principal de la Iglesia para la celebración. Aquellos que se sientan en la sección de Misa diaria durante la celebración del Domingo parecen espectadores en un juego en vez de participantes. Por lo tanto, solicito a todos aquellos que prefieren sentarse en la sección de Misa diaria los Domingos a que vayan y se sienten en la parte principal de la Iglesia y a tomar parte activa en la celebración Dominical.
