From the Pastor's Desk:

After many years of dilly-dallying on account of the prevailing unfavorable economic situation, the diocese of Oakland under the leadership of the present bishop

Most Rev. Michael Barber SJ is finally organizing for the first time in the history of the diocese of Oakland a Capital Campaign for the entire Diocese of Oakland. This capital campaign is mainly to raise money to support the various programs of the diocese with a long time vision and planning. It is also to reduce the debt the diocese has incurred over the years on account of various projects and problems. Last year when we faced a crisis in the form of imminent collapse of our Bell Tower as well as the roof over the dining hall in the rectory, we the parishioners of St. Joachim, as one family rose to the occasion and solved the problems by our financial donations - both big and small.

Most of the people who contributed substantial amount of money to these two projects of St. Joachim Church did so not because they have too much money but because of the love they have for the St. Joachim Church. Many of our parishioners consider St. Joachim Church as their second home. Most of the precious moments of their life have taken place in this church - the Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation, Marriage etc. Therefore, when the church has some need, they feel it is their duty to come to its aid. And indeed you have done so.

Now the diocese comes to us with the request to help the diocese to overcome the problems it faces as well as to support its various programs. St. Joachim Church is a unit of the Diocese of Oakland. We belong to the diocese of Oakland. As an organization, our church has no existence apart from the diocese. We share in its achievements and failures. We share in its concerns as much as we share in its strengths. A healthy and strong diocese will enable the leadership to take initiatives to fulfill the mission of Jesus- to proclaim the Gospel both in words and deeds, to impart our faith to our children and youth, to provide education to our less fortunate children and migrants, to provide counseling to couples who are struggling in their marital relationship, to care for the aged and dying etc. Last few weeks the diocese has been sharing with us a lot of information on the purpose of this capital campaign. Now is the time to make that extra sacrifice. This week is the pledge week. We are called to make a pledge for the coming four years. Even a minimum amount of one dollar per day will make $ 30 per month and $ 360 per year and $ 1440 for a period of four years! Surly that is well within the capacity of all families in our parish. And together with the donation of those generous people who would be making a pledge for a greater amount, well, the goal looks like a small step to climb. Come let us support our Bishop. Come let us support our diocese. Come let us support our Church. "If you love something show it in action."

Nota de nuestro pastor

Después de muchos años de vacilación por culpa de la situación económica desfavorable, la Diócesis de Oakland bajo el liderazgo del actual Obispo Rev. Michael Barber, SJ finalmente está organizando por primera vez en la historia de la Diócesis de Oakland una Campaña Capital para toda la Diócesis de Oakland. Esta Campaña es principalmente para recaudar fondos para apoyar los diversos programas de la Diócesis a un largo plazo de visión y planificación. También es para reducir la deuda que la Diócesis ha incurrido a través de los años por causa de diversos problemas y proyectos. El año pasado cuando enfrentamos una crisis de un colapso inminente de la torre del campanario, así como el techo del comedor en la rectoría, los feligreses de San Joaquín, como una sola familia se unieron y solucionaron los problemas por medio de nuestras donaciones financieras - tanto grandes como pequeñas.

La mayoría de las personas quienes contribuyeron una cantidad considerable de dinero para estos dos proyectos de la Iglesia de San Joaquín lo hicieron no porque tienen mucho dinero, sino por el amor que sienten por la Iglesia de San Joaquín. Muchos de nuestros feligreses consideran la Iglesia de San Joaquín como su segunda casa. La mayoría de los momentos de su vida han tenido lugar en esta Iglesia - el Bautismo, Primera Comunión, Confirmación, Matrimonio, etc. Por lo tanto, cuando la Iglesia tiene alguna necesidad, sienten que es su deber de acudir en su ayuda. Y en efecto lo han hecho.

Ahora la Diócesis viene a nosotros con la petición de ayuda para que la Diócesis pueda superar los problemas que enfrenta así como también apoyar sus diversos programas. La Iglesia de San Joaquín es una unidad de la Diócesis de Oakland. Pertenece a la Diócesis de Oakland. Como organización, nuestra Iglesia no tiene existencia aparte de la Diócesis. Compartimos sus logros y fracasos. Compartimos su preocupación tanto como compartimos sus fortalezas. Una Diócesis sana y fuerte permitirá a los dirigentes a tomar iniciativas para cumplir con la misión de Jesús - proclamar el Evangelio tanto en palabras y acciones, impartir la fe a nuestros niños y jóvenes, proporcionar educación a los niños y migrantes menos afortunados, brindar asesoramiento a las parejas que tienen dificultades en su relación matrimonial, cuidar de los ancianos y moribundos, etc. En las últimas semanas la Diócesis ha estado compartiendo con nosotros mucha información sobre el propósito de esta Campaña. Ahora es el momento de hacer ese sacrificio extra. Esta semana es la semana de compromiso. Somos llamados a hacer un compromiso por los próximos cuatro años. Aun la mínima cantidad de un dólar por día será $ 30 por mes, $ 360 por año y $1440 durante un período de cuatro años! Seguro que esto está dentro de la capacidad de nuestras familias. Y junto con la donación de esas personas generosas que estarán haciendo un compromiso por una mayor cantidad, pues, el objetivo parece ser un escalón pequeño para subir. ¡Vengamos a apoyar a nuestro Obispo. ¡Vengamos a apoyar a nuestra Diócesis. ¡Vengamos a apoyar a nuestra Iglesia. "Si amas algo muéstralo en acción."

Vatican Corner

This is a continuation of the column on the meaning of some church symbols that are used in Catholic Churches and can be seen at the Vatican. Since the end of the first century, tradition has it that the authors of the first four books of the New Testament: Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, are each associated with a winged living creature that was written about in the Book of Revelations. The rationale is that at the beginning of each Gospel a winged living creature is alluded to: Mark is the winged lion, Luke the winged ox, Matthew the winged man (not an angel) and finally John is the eagle. Works of art containing these winged creatures can be seen at the Vatican symbolizing those four evangelists. St. Mark is the patron saint of Venice, and that is why the lion is found in so many places in that City. The Trinity: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are the three functions of a single God and the trinity symbol is consistently used in architecture and artworks in churches. For instance, many churches will only have three doors: the church symbolizes heaven and the three doors represent the Trinity with the deeper meaning being that the only way to enter heaven is through The Father, Son and Holy Spirit. In St. Peter's Cathedral at the Vatican, the Trinity symbol is blended into the main altar. The canopy that covers the altar has doves hovering and representing the Holy Spirit. On top of the canopy is a cross which represents Jesus and much higher up in Michelangelo's dome you can see a mosaic of God the Father in a red and blue swirl shining down from heaven. The use of the dome itself, floating high above the ground is meant to represent the promise of heaven. Many times you will see holy figures holding up their hand with their forefinger and middle finger extended; from there the variations of how the thumb is held vary. Often, this hand symbol is thought to symbolize the Trinity with the forefinger, middle finger and thumb representing the three functions of God. This symbol was actually appropriated from a non-Christian (i.e. pagan) hand symbol of warding off evil spirits. So this hand gesture predates Christianity and has been used in Rome for 1000s of years. Source: Kangaroo.com

Would you like for your departed loved ones to be remembered during the Masses here at St Joachim?

ALL SOULS

We have envelopes available at the doors of the Church as well as in the Rectory Office. These donation envelopes have a place on the outside for you to list the names of your family and friends that have passed away. Complete these envelopes and return them to the Rectory office. These names will then be placed on a tray and placed on the Altar. During ALL Masses in the month of November the Priest will remember the names that have been placed on that tray and we as a community will pray for them. This is a wonderful way to have your departed loved ones remembered during the month of November.

In the Parish this Week:

November 3rd — Monday

Liturgy Committee

The Liturgy Committee will meet on Monday night at 7 PM in the SCIENCE ROOM. All members are encouraged to attend.

¡Es Tiempo para Entregar Su Compromiso!

Este es nuestro fin de semana de compromiso para nuestra campaña Recuperando Juntos la Misión de Cristo. Favor de entregar su compromiso hoy. Si aun no han tenido la oportunidad de hacer su compromiso, se encuentran tarjetas de compromiso en las banquillas, favor de llenar su tarjeta y entregarla en la canasta de ofrenda.

¿Porque es Importante Hacer un Compromiso?

- > Un compromiso le permite hacer un sacrificio continuo que aumenta a una contribución significativa después de un periodo largo.
- > Un compromiso es una carga mas ligera que una donación grande.
- > Un compromiso le da un estimado ideal a la parroquia y diócesis para poder planear mejor.

Su compromiso es también una intención que usted hará lo mejor posible para cumplir con su promesa. El Obispo Barber y el Padre Sebastian reconocen esto y les agradecen de antemano. Aun pago inicial de 10% es recomendado pero no necesario.

¿Cómo me Comprometo?

Para ayudarle en hacer su decisión, una tabla de planes sugeridos se presenta abajo. Favor de mantener en mente aunque no existe regalo muy grande ni muy pequeño debería de tener una relación con lo generoso Dios ha sido con usted y su familia.

St. Joachim Catholic Church Campaign Newsletter

November 1 – 2, 2014 Volume 10

This Weekend Is Commitment Weekend!

Our Reclaiming Christ's Mission Together Campaign Commitment Weekend takes place this weekend here at St. Joachim Catholic Church. Please consider your pledge to the campaign today. If you have not had an opportunity to make your pledge, please complete one of the pledge envelopes available in the pews and place it in today's collection.

Why is Pledging Vital?

- > A pledge allows you to make a continuous sacrifice that adds up to a significant contribution over a period of time.
- > A pledge makes payments less of a burden than a one-time gift.
- > A pledge gives the parish and Diocese an accurate estimate for future planning.

Your pledge is a statement of your intent to give to the best of your ability. The Bishop and Reverend Joseph Sebastian know that when you make your pledge, you will do your best to fulfill it. A 10% down payment is encouraged but not necessary.

How do I make my Gift?

To assist you in making your decision, suggested gift plans are presented below. Keep in mind that while no pledge is too small or too large, it should have some relationship to how generous God has been to you and your family.
