From the Pastor's Desk:

Month of December was filled with various celebrations in St. Joachim church campus. In the first half of the month, on every evening we had Guadalupe novena masses from December 3rd to December 11th, culminating in the celebration of the festival of Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12th 2014. In between these Guadalupe Novena celebrations, the Nicaraguan community of St. Joachim celebrated the feast of our Lady of Immaculate Conception on Saturday December 6th 2014. The grand festival of Guadalupe on December 12th was immediately followed by 'Christmas Carol and Dinner' by St. Joachim Choir and St. Joachim School on December 13, 2014. After a short break of just two days - keeping apart the usual weekend liturgical celebrations - two other Novena celebrations began to be celebrated from December 16th to December 24th 2014, culminating in the festival of Christmas.

The first one was the Simbang Gabi celebrations from December 16th to December 24th 2014. Every morning at 5.30, nearly 300 people participated in the Novena mass held in our church. Breakfast was served in the Gym to everyone who participated in the novena mass. Like last year, the chief organizers of this year's Simbang Gabi celebrations were the Knights of Columbus. Unlike the previous years, this year our neighboring parishes too, began to celebrate the Simbang Gabi celebrations for nine days. As a result, there was a slight drop in the number of people who took part in this year's novena masses and the breakfast. But the Knights saw to that there was no drop in the festive atmosphere or in the manner we provided food for the people. In addition to helping the community to prepare for the celebration of Christmas, the Simbang Gabi celebration, just as the Guadalupe celebration generated substantial amount of income to the parish. Though the Knights of Columbus has only a few members, they play a major role whenever the church needs any help such as carrying out repair and maintenance work in and around the church, setting the hall and gym for the church events and doing the cleaning up work after the church events etc. I have to only contact their Grand knight by phone for carrying out any work and it can be taken for granted that the work is taken care. The Knights have become a big blessing to our church. Well done Knights. You are a blessing to St. Joachim church.

December 16th to 24th 2014, in the evening we had Posada celebrations in the hall. In spite of the inclement weather, it was such a joy to see so many people, particularly the children taking part in the Posada celebrations. I express my heartfelt thanks to Mr. Jose Louis Gonzalez, Mr. Hector Pedraza and his beautiful wife Ms. Cristalina and all the others who in one way or another contributed towards the Posada celebrations. I could see so much of happiness on the face of children on the days of Posada celebrations. God bless you abundantly.

Nota de nuestro pastor

El mes de diciembre estuvo lleno de varias celebraciones en la iglesia de San Joaquín. En la primera parte del mes, cada noche tuvimos la novena y misa de la Virgen de Guadalupe, del 3 al 11 de diciembre, culminando con una gran celebración el 12 de diciembre del 2014. Entre esta celebración de la Novena de Guadalupe, la comunidad de Nicaragua de San Joaquín celebró la fiesta de la Inmaculada Concepción de nuestra Virgen María el 6 de diciembre del 2014. El festival de Guadalupe el 12 de diciembre estuvo seguido por la Cena y Concierto de Villancicos de Navidad que pusieron el Coro de la Iglesia y de la Escuela de San Joaquín el 13 de diciembre del 2014. Después de un corto receso de solo dos días manteniendo además las celebraciones litúrgicas de fin de semana habituales otras dos Novenas empezaron del 16 al 24 de diciembre del 2014, culminando en las festividades de Navidad.

La primera fue las celebraciones de Simbang Gabi del 16 al 24 de diciembre del 2014. Cada mañana a las 5:30, casi 300 personas participaron en esta Novena celebrada en nuestra iglesia. Después se sirvió desayuno a todos los participantes de la misa. Como el año pasado los organizadores de Simbang Gabi este año fueron los Caballeros de Colón. A diferencia de años anteriores, este año parroquias vecinas también, comenzaron a celebrar las fiestas Simbang Gabi durante nueve días. Como resultado, hubo un ligero descenso en el número de personas que participaron en las misas de la novena y el desayuno. Pero los Caballeros de Colón se encargaron que no disminuyera el ambiente festivo ni la comida para la gente. Además de ayudar a la comunidad a prepararse para la celebración de la Navidad, la celebración de Simbang Gabi, al igual que la celebración Guadalupe generaron un monto substancial de ingresos para la parroquia. Aunque los Caballeros de Colón tiene sólo unos pocos miembros, desempeñan un papel importante siempre que la iglesia los necesita, como los trabajos de reparación y mantenimiento alrededor de la iglesia, alistando el Salón y el Gimnasio para cualquier evento de la Iglesia y limpiando después de cualquier evento, etc. Solamente necesito contactarme por teléfono con su Gran Caballero para hacer cualquier trabajo y a veces no se puede percibir que hacen. Los Caballeros se han vuelto una bendición para nuestra Iglesia. Muy bien hecho Caballeros. Ustedes son una bendición a la Iglesia de San Joaquín.

Del 16 al 24 de diciembre del 2014, por las noches celebramos las Posadas en el Salón. A pesar de las inclemencias del tiempo, fue una alegría ver a tanta gente en particular a los niños participando en las Posadas. Expreso mi sincero agradecimiento al señor José Louis González, al señor Héctor Pedraza y su hermosa esposa Cristalina y a todos aquellos que de alguna forma colaboraron con la celebración de las Posadas. Vi mucha alegría en los rostros de los niños que participaron en la celebración de la Posada. Que Dios los bendiga abundantemente.

Vatican Corner

On November 8, 2014, Pope Francis made more key appointments intended to help bring about a change of mentality in the Vatican hierarchy. He is looking for a softer approach to applying Church law, and he thinks he's found that in French Moroccan Archbishop Dominique Mamberti. The Archbishop will replace U.S. Cardinal Raymond Burke as the highest judicial authority in the Catholic Church. Pope Francis is looking to get procedural simplifications on marriage annulments, while also safeguarding the principle of the indissolubility of matrimony. In a Nov. 5th meeting with canon lawyers, Pope Francis said some procedures are currently so long and financially burdensome that people "give up." In his new position, Archbishop Mamberti will be in charge — among other responsibilities — of final appeals for cases of marriage annulments as well as cases of conflict of competencies among Vatican departments. Appeals for marriage annulments have increased in recent years and Pope Francis wants his own appointee to be making the decisions. The position of the supreme judge is traditionally held by a cardinal, so Archbishop Mamberti can expect to be made a cardinal at the next formal meeting of cardinals. The replaced Cardinal Raymond Leo Burke, 66, has been made the patron of the Order of Malta, an mainly honorary position which is usually assigned to cardinals who are at the end of their ecclesiastical career. While Francis has been Pope, Cardinal Burke, an outspoken conservative, has frequently voiced his concerns with some of the choices being made in Church governance. Nevertheless, as an active cardinal living in Rome, his capacity to communicate his opinions will remain the same if not greater — since no significant office will be attached to him. British Archbishop Paul Gallagher has taken Archbishop Mamberti's vacated position as the Vatican's second- in-command to the Secretary of State. Archbishop Gallagher is an astute, open-minded and humble worker, with diplomatic experience in Europe, and as an ambassador to Burundi, Guatemala and Australia. He was chosen also for his ability to fulfill a new diplomatic criteria required by Pope Francis. He wants diplomats to reduce the distance between themselves and mainstream society, engaging the secular world more in conversation. Diplomats have been asked "to seek to understand situations and try to adapt to them in order to bring the light of the Gospel to them." Sources: Nationl Catholic Register , huffington post.com

Thank You

We would like to offer a very special THANK YOU to a group of people who got up VERY EARLY last Sunday morning to make and sell the delicious Filhos “Portuguese Donuts”. Their talents and hard work paid off as they brought in over
