Luke 24:36

From the Pastor's Desk:

Egyptian pyramids are world-famous as one of the "seven Wonders" of the ancient world. But they are actually gigantic tombs containing the mummified bodies of Egyptian Pharaohs. Westminster Abby is famous, and thousands visit it because the dead bodies of famous writers, philosophers and politicians are entombed there. But there is a Shrine of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem, and pilgrims from all over the world visit a tomb there which is empty with a note at its entrance which says, "He is not here." It is famous because Jesus Christ who was once buried there rose from the dead, leaving an empty tomb, as He had told his disciples he would. Thus, He worked the most important miracle in His life, defying the laws of nature and proving that He is God. During this season of Easter we celebrate this greatest and unique event. May our life radiate the joy of the apostles who beheld the risen Lord in the upper room. May our joy be contagious by bringing joy, happiness and peace to everyone whom we meet in our day to day life. May the peace of the Risen Lord be with you and with your family always particularly during this season of Easter.

I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks to everyone who helped in one way or the other in the church during this season of Lent and Holy Week. So many people came and thanked me for the way we organized the entire liturgical celebrations during this season of lent, particularly the Holy Week. Though the credit belongs to everyone, I particularly thank the Liturgical Committee, the Choir, the Altar Servers, the Lectors, the Eucharistic Ministers, the Eucharistic ministers to the sick, the Environment Committee, the Ushers, the Amigo the Christo, the Knights of Columbus, the Catechists and the Youth for their dedicated service and sacrifice. Well done. May God's gracious eyes and blessings be upon you and your family for what you have done. You are indeed such a blessing to St.Joachim Parish.

A man was driving without his seatbelt when he spotted a patrol car right behind him. He grabbed for the belt and put it on. But it was too late, and the red lights began to flash. "You weren't wearing your seatbelt," said the officer. "Yes I was," said the man, "and if you don't believe me, ask my wife." "So how ABOUT it, ma'am?" asked the cop. "Officer," she said, "I've been married to this man for forty years, and there's one thing I've learned: Never argue with him when he's drunk! Just give him a ticket for not wearing the seat belt."

Nota de nuestro pastor

Las Pirámides Egipcias gozan de fama mundial como una de las "Siete Maravillas" del mundo antiguo. Pero son en realidad tumbas gigantescas conteniendo los cuerpos momificados de Faraones Egipcios. Westminster Abby es famoso, y miles visitan porque los cuerpos muertos de famosos escritores, filósofos y políticos están enterrados allí. Pero hay un Santuario del Santo Sepulcro en Jerusalén, y peregrinos de todo el mundo visitan allí una tumba que está vacía con una nota en su entrada que dice: "No está aquí". Es famoso porque Jesucristo, quien una vez fue enterrado allí, resucitó de los muertos dejando una tumba vacía, tal y como les había dicho a sus discípulos que lo haría. Por lo tanto, hizo el milagro más importante en su vida, desafiando las leyes de la naturaleza y demostrando que Él es Dios. Durante esta temporada de Pascua celebramos este acontecimiento mayor y único. Que nuestra vida pueda irradiar la alegría de los apóstoles que contemplaban al Señor resucitado en el Cenáculo. Que nuestra alegría sea contagiosa trayendo alegría, felicidad y paz para todos quienes nos encontramos en nuestra vida diaria. Que la paz del Señor Resucitado esté contigo y con tu familia siempre y especialmente durante esta temporada de Pascua.

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para expresar mi más sincero agradecimiento a todos los que ayudaron de una manera u otra en la Iglesia durante esta temporada de Cuaresma y Semana Santa. Mucha gente vino y me agradeció por la forma en que organizamos las celebraciones litúrgicas toda durante esta temporada de Cuaresma, especialmente la Semana Santa. Aunque el crédito le pertenece a todos, agradezco especialmente al Comité de Liturgia, el Coro, los Monaguillos, los Lectores, los Ministros Extraordinarios de la Eucaristía, los Ministros Extraordinarios de la Eucaristía a los enfermos, el Comité de Decoración, los Ujieres, los Amigos de Cristo, los Caballeros de Colón, las Catequistas y los Jóvenes por su servicio y sacrificio. Bien hecho. Que los ojos de Dios y las bendiciones caigan sobre ustedes y sus familias por lo que han hecho. Tú eres ciertamente una bendición para la parroquia de San Joaquín.

Un hombre conducía sin su cinturón de seguridad cuando vio a una patrulla detrás de él. Agarró el cinturón y se lo puso. Pero ya era demasiado tarde, y las luces rojas comenzaron a parpadear. "No llevabas el cinturón de seguridad," dijo el oficial. "Sí lo llevaba", dijo el hombre, "y si no me crees, pregúntale a mi esposa". "Qué dice, señora?" le pregunto el policía "Oficial", dijo, "me casé con este hombre hace cuarenta años, y hay una cosa que he aprendido: Nunca discutas con él cuando está borracho! Simplemente dele una multa por no llevar el cinturón de seguridad."

Easter Vigil

Thank You

The name that William Penn gave his colony's capital city is a combination of Greek words for love: phileo and brother: adelphos, setting up the enduring nickname for Philadelphia, PA, the City of Brotherly Love. It is the place where the founding fathers of the United States signed the Declaration of Independence, and Constitution, where the cheese steak sandwich was invented, and where Pope Francis will be coming on Sept. 26th & 27th, 2015 to attend the World Meeting of Families event. One and a half to two million visitors are expected to flood into a city of 1.5 million, some from as far away as Pope Francis' native South America. Hotels within a 10-mile radius of downtown Philadelphia have already sold out, and organizers are hoping local families will volunteer to host visitors. The leader of Philadelphia's Catholics - Archbishop Charles Chaput has urging his flock to show some brotherly love during Pope Francis' visit to the city. He has asked Catholics, and non-Christians alike, to open their homes to offer lodging to visitors via the "Host a Family Program.

Any one with a furnished guest bedroom, apartment or home (including vacation homes) within 120 miles of Center City Philadelphia is encouraged to take part." "You'll be asked to create a 'Host a Family' profile and include a description about yourself and your home, including the number of bedrooms available for guests, distance to Center City Philadelphia, photos, household rules and any other relevant information about your home or community." The World Meeting of Families is expected to draw thousands to Philadelphia from Sept. 22 to Sept. 27 with the number of visitors swelling to possibly millions as the Pope spends the last weekend of September in Philadelphia. He will attend the closing festival of the World Meeting of Families and the next day he will celebrate a public mass on the Ben Franklin Parkway. Serious traffic problems are trying to be avoided. To reduce congestion, the professional baseball and football teams will be out of town that weekend and the date of an annual half marathon race has been

Philadelphia will get the day off before Pope Francis comes to town since street closures will take effect then and make it too hard to get to class. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia says that it needs 10,000 volunteers or more. As a comparison the London Olympics required 70,000 volunteers for the two-week Olympiad. All volunteers must be U.S. citizens and be at least 18 years old and must also complete an online background check. Archbishop Chaput admitted he's still trying to process just how massive the event will be. "Almost every day there's a moment when I'm holding my breath," he said. Chaput put the enormity of the event in perspective when he revealed the cost of porta-potties. "We think more than $1.2 million just for those extra bathrooms we're bringing in," he said. "There's not enough just from Eastern Pennsylvania. We have to import them from other states actually."

Third Sunday of Easter

There are many people we admire or revere whom we will never see in person: athletes, artists, actors, etc. We enjoy their work and accomplishments and read about their lives in books and magazines. We sometimes get so involved in who they are that we almost feel like we know them. We may be their biggest fans and then share our love of them with others. We do all of this, yet we have never even see them in the flesh with our own eyes. Some think this is the way with Jesus. They believe he is the Son of God and the savior of the world, but he is still someone up in heaven, and we will get a chance to see him "for real" when we die or when he comes again. They may even say that until those times occur, he resides only in our hearts.

But those in the Gospels saw who he was in the breaking of the bread. And today, in 2015, he is here in our midst for all eyes to see. He is here really and truly every time we break the bread. There is no need for worship from afar. Just open your eyes.

Tercer Domingo de Pascua

Hay muchas personas que admiran o dan reverencia a quienes nunca verán en persona: atletas, artistas, actores, etc. Disfrutan de sus trabajos, sus logros y leer sobre sus vidas en libros y revistas. Algunas veces están tan involucradas en sus vidas que casi sienten que los conocen. Son sus mayores admiradores y comparten su amor por ellos con los demás. Hacen todo esto, sin ni siquiera haberlos visto propios ojos.

Algunos piensan que así es Jesús. Ellos creen que él es el Hijo de Dios y el salvador del mundo, pero él sigue siendo alguien en el cielo, y vamos a tener la oportunidad de verlo "de verdad" cuando muramos o cuando regrese. Incluso podemos decir que hasta que esto suceda, él vive sólo en nuestros corazones. Pero aquellos quienes son parte de los Evangelios, vieron que él estaba en el pan. Y hoy en día, en 2015, él está aquí en medio de nosotros. Él está aquí realmente y verdaderamente cada vez que comemos el pan. No hay necesidad de adoración desde lejos. Sólo tenemos que abrir nuestros ojos.

2015 Regional
NORTH AMERICAN CONGRESS ON MERCY
Cathedral of Christ the Light • Oakland, California • April 24-26, 2015

Registration Now Open!

This April, the red and pale rays of Divine Mercy will shine in the Cathedral of Christ the Light in Oakland, California.

Hosted by the Diocese of Oakland and the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception, the "Divine Mercy — Fullness of the Faith" regional North American Congress on Mercy (NACOM) will be celebrated in the cathedral from Friday, April 24-Sunday, April 26.

The Most Reverend Michael Barber, SJ, bishop of Oakland, and Fr. Carl Arcosa, the Divine Mercy coordinator for the Diocese of Oakland, invited the Marians to turn what had been scheduled as a simple one-day Divine Mercy conference into a full, three-day regional NACOM. The event serves as a follow-up to the Third World Apostolic Congress on Mercy (WACOM) that took place last year in Bogotá, Colombia, and also as preparation for the larger NACOM planned for October 2016 in the Diocese of Orange, California.

To register by telephone:

Call Mary Kay (413) 298-1116 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Eastern Time
