I AM

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

John 10:11

From the Pastor's Desk:

One census taker went to the home of a rather poor family in the mountains of West Virginia to gather information. He asked the mother how many dependents she had. She began, "Well, there is Rosie, and Billy, and Lewella, Susie, Harry, and Jeffrey. There's Johnny, and Harvey, and our dog, Willie." It was then that the census taker interrupted her aid said: "No, ma'am, that's not necessary. I only need the humans." "Ah," she said. "Well, there is Rosie, and Billy, and Lewella, Susie, Harry, and Jeffrey, Johnny, and Harvey, and...." But there once again, the census taker interrupted her. Slightly exasperated, he said, "No, ma'am, you don't seem to understand. I don't need their names, I just need the numbers." To which the old woman replied, "But I don't know them by numbers. I only know them by name." In today's gospel Jesus the good shepherd says that he knows his sheep by name.

In London, a crowd had gathered to hear a famous Shakespearean actor recite some of Shakespeare's dramas. The crowd was so very entranced and entertained by the actor's abilities, and they gave him frequent standing ovations. An old preacher in the audience encouraged the actor to recite the 23rd Psalm, using his Shakespearean style. The actor agreed on one condition that the preacher also should do so after he finished. The actor used much expression and voice inflection and all of his acting abilities, and when he was finished, the crowd gave a resounding standing ovation that lasted for several minutes. Then the old preacher started reciting the same psalm. As he began, his voice was shaky because of his reverence for God's Word. When the preacher was finished, nobody clapped. They couldn't. There wasn't a dry eye anywhere, and all were busy wiping their tears. The Shakespearean actor slowly stood, and he said, "Ladies and gentlemen, there is obviously a difference between this preacher and me. I know the Psalm of the Good Shepherd psalm, but this preacher knows the Shepherd of the Psalm." -----

It's been said that every pastor ought to have six weeks of vacation each year, because if he is a real good shepherd, he deserves it; and if he is not a very good shepherd, his congregation deserves it.

Nota de nuestro pastor

Un verificador fue a la casa de una familia bastante pobre en las montañas de Virginia Occidental para reunir información. Le preguntó a la madre cuántos dependientes tenía. Ella comenzó, "Bueno, está Rosie y Billy y Lewella, Susie, Harry y Jeffrey. Está Johnny y Harvey y nuestro perro, Willie". Fue entonces que el verificador la interrumpió y dijo: "No, señora, eso no es necesario. Sólo necesito a los seres humanos". "Ah", dijo. "Bueno, hay Rosie y Billy, Lewella, Susie, Harry y Jeffrey, Johnny y Harvey, y..." Pero allí una vez más, el verificador le interrumpe. Ligeramente exasperado, dijo: "No, señora, no parece que entiende. No necesito sus nombres, sólo necesito los números". A lo que la anciana respondió, "pero no les conozco por números. Sólo los conozco por su nombre." En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús el Buen Pastor dice que conoce a sus ovejas por su nombre.

Londres, una multitud se había reunido para oír a un actor famoso Shakesperiano recitar algunos de los dramas de Shakespeare. La multitud estaba muy extasiada y entretenida por las habilidades del actor, y le dieron frecuentes ovaciones. Un viejo predicador en el público animó al actor para recitar el Salmo 23, usando su estilo Shakesperiano. El actor accedió con una condición, que el predicador lo hiciera después de que el terminara. El actor utilizó mucha expresión e inflexión de voz y todas sus capacidades de actuación, y cuando terminó, la multitud le dio una rotunda ovación que duró varios minutos. Entonces el viejo predicador empezó a recitar el mismo Salmo. Cuando comenzó, su voz estaba temblorosa debido a su reverencia por la Palabra de Dios. Cuando el predicador terminó, nadie aplaudió. No pudieron. No había un ojo seco en ningún lugar, y todos estaban ocupados limpiando sus lágrimas. El actor Shakesperiano lentamente se puso de pie y dijo: "Damas y Caballeros, obviamente hay una diferencia entre este predicador y yo. Yo sé el Salmo del Buen Pastor, pero este predicador conoce al Pastor del Salmo".

Se ha dicho que cada Pastor debería tener seis semanas de vacaciones cada año, porque si es un buen Pastor, se lo merece; y si no es un muy buen Pastor, su congregación se lo merece.

Vatican Corner

Continued... Archbishop Chaput of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia says that so far church organizers have raised $33 million of their $45 million goal for the World Meeting of Families event, of which Pope Francis will be attending the closing ceremonies. Most of the funds will go to crowd security and event cleanup. He said "Those are very expensive things to do with such a big crowd."

Organizers have announced that the US Department of Homeland Security is taking the lead in all security arrangements for the events. The federal government has declared the Pope's visit and activities leading up to his arrival a "national security special event." That means multiple governmental agencies will be bringing their many resources to Philadelphia. The Secret Service is in charge of all security, the FBI is tasked with intelligence gathering and investigation of any terrorism threats or other major criminal activities. The Papal Swiss Guard, Vatican Police and Philadelphia Police will also coordinate to ensure the safety of the Pope and the public.

Philadelphia will be following the well-worn plan for managing large events that they use each Fourth July when approximately one million people pack the Benjamin Franklin Parkway to attend the free holiday concert. A spokesman for the City said "certainly, the numbers will be greater, but the framework is there and we feel confident that we will be able to manage this aspect of planning."

As the host for Pope Francis during his visit to Philadelphia, Archbishop Chaput will have a very special privilege. "I actually get to ride in the Popemobile with him," Chaput said. "That's how close I'm gonna be in the situation." "I don't know exactly where I'm going to be seated but they tell me I'm supposed to accompany him in all the venues here in Philadelphia because I'm the host, and that's a great privilege. I've never done that before" and "I'll be standing next to the Pope during the mass," Chaput said.

The Vatican has given its blessing to a fund raiser. The vanilla ice cream and shortbread cookie milkshake called "#PopeinPhilly" will benefit the events in Philadelphia. Archbishop Vincenzo Paglia the president of the Vatican department that organizes the world meetings picked the winning flavor from three choices during a recent visit to a Potbelly Sandwich Shop in Philadelphia. Paglia got help from a dozen Catholic school students.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Let us pray...

God of the invitation,
you knock upon the door of everyone's heart.
We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes.
We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance.
We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead.

Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.

Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

"How long has Jesus been knocking at the door of your heart, waiting to enter?"
