Will we follow Jesus
no matter what?

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Pastor's Desk:

During the last four years since I have been the pastor of St. Joachim, I have not only come across some of the most memorable experience of my life as a priest but also have met some of the most noble, inspiring, prayerful, sincere, and loving people. Being associated with such people has immensely helped to grow as an individual and as a priest. Their love for God and St. Joachim church has often made me feel so humble before their commitment. Listening to their life story has greatly inspired my life. Being deeply loved by such noble and saintly people is certainly one of the great blessings of God in my life as a priest. One such great couple is Mr. Arthur Cassel and his beloved wife Ms. Dorothy Cassel who celebrated their 68th Wedding anniversary June 14th 2015. Quite a few times I have gone with them for dinner, Black Angus being our favorite place. During our dinner, Ms. Dorothy used to narrate all about their life as a husband and wife.

Both of them studied in the same class. For no reason Ms. Dorothy developed some liking for Mr. Arthur Cassel. As her place in the class room was just behind Mr. Arthur, once in a while she used to kick his leg from behind. As Mr. Arthur had the reputation of one of the well behaved students in the school, he could only suffer in silence without reacting to it. However, after their high school, it was Mr. Arthur who took a fancy for Ms. Dolly and wanted to marry her when they were just 18 years old. But Ms. Dolly was in no mood to marry him so young. But his persistence was so much that they married after three years that is when they were just 21 years old. One thing that she mentioned again and again was that it was not very easy at the beginning. As the initial period of excitement and experiments got settled down, the reality of understanding and adjusting to each other's likes and dislikes began to take place. This was the most crucial stage. With the smile on their lips, both of them recalled the times when each of them had walked out of the house saying enough is enough only to come back to the house like a thief after two hours! True, they recalled that there were days when we went to bed without talking to each other only to be all over each other the next day morning! They understood that in order to have a happy family life, they needed to sacrifice their likes and dislikes, for the sake of the other person. That led them to understand and accept one another. While having dinner on their 68th wedding anniversary, recalling their life together as husband and wife for the last 68 years, Mr. Arthur Cassel said, "today, honestly I can say, Dolly is the best thing that happened in my life" And Dolly reciprocated the same feeling by saying the same words. After saying these words, both of them got lost in deep kiss forgetting all their children and the priest sitting nearby! A truly amazing couple - thankful to God of everything particularly for their 6 beloved children who are so united and loving to each other. No wonder I felt a sense of personal loss when I was told that Mr. Arthur Cassel breathed his last on August 11th 2015 surrounded by all his children and his beloved wife Ms. Dolly Cassel. In his death St. Joachim lost a great and beloved son. For me it is truly a personal loss of a beloved friend and a sage. May his soul rest in peace.

Nota de nuestro pastor

Durante los últimos cuatro años desde que he sido Pastor de San Joaquín, no sólo ha llegado la experiencia más memorable de mi vida como Sacerdote, sino también he conocido algunas personas de las más nobles, inspiradoras, personas de oración, sinceras y amorosas. Asociarme con tales personas me ha ayudado enormemente a crecer como individuo y como un Sacerdote. Su amor por Dios y por la Iglesia San Joaquín a menudo ha hecho que me sienta tan humilde ante su compromiso. Escuchando su historia de vida ha inspirado grandemente mi vida. Ser amado profundamente por gente tan noble y santa sin duda es una de las bendiciones de Dios en mi vida como Sacerdote. Una gran pareja es el Sr. Arthur Cassel y su amada esposa Sra. Dorothy Cassel, quienes celebraron sus 68 aniversarios de boda el 14 de Junio de 2015. Varias veces he ido con ellos a cenar, Black Angus ha sido nuestro lugar favorito. Durante nuestra cena, la Sra. Dorothy solía narrar su vida como marido y mujer.

Ambos estudiaron en la misma clase. Sin ninguna razón la Sra. Dorothy desarrolló un gusto por el Sr. Arthur Cassel. Como su lugar en la sala de clase estaba justo detrás del Sr. Arthur, de vez en cuando solía patearle la pierna desde atrás. Como el Sr. Arthur tenía la reputación de uno de los alumnos bien educados en la escuela, solamente podía sufrir en silencio sin reaccionar por ello. Sin embargo, después de su secundaria, fue el Sr. Arthur a quien le gustó la Sra. Dolly y quería casarse con ella cuando tenían apenas 18 años de edad, pero la Sra. Dolly no estaba dispuesta a casarse con él tan joven. Su persistencia fue tanta, que se casaron después de tres años cuando estaban de sólo 21 años de edad. Una cosa que mencionaba una y otra vez era que no fue muy fácil al principio. Cuando el período inicial de entusiasmo y de experimentos se estableció, la realidad de comprender y adaptarse a los gustos del uno y del otro comenzó a tomar lugar. Esta fue la etapa más crucial. Con la sonrisa en los labios, ambos recordaron los tiempos cuando cada uno de ellos había abandonado la casa diciendo suficiente es suficiente sólo para volver a la casa como un ladrón después de dos horas! Ciertamente, recordaron que hubieron días cuando se fueron a la cama sin hablarse el uno al otro sólo para que a la mañana siguiente siguieran el uno sobre el otro! Entendieron que para poder tener una vida familiar feliz, debían sacrificar sus gustos y disgustos, por el bien de la otra persona. Eso les llevó a comprender y aceptarse mutuamente. Durante la cena de sus 68 aniversarios de boda, recordando su vida juntos como marido y mujer durante los últimos 68 años, el Sr. Arthur Cassel dijo: "hoy, honestamente puedo decir, Dolly es lo mejor que me ha pasado en mi vida" y Dolly correspondió el mismo sentimiento diciendo las mismas palabras. Después de decir estas palabras, ambos se perdieron en un beso profundo olvidándose de todos sus hijos y del Sacerdote sentado cerca! Una pareja verdaderamente increíble – agradecidos de Dios por todo, especialmente por sus 6 hijos amados quienes están tan unidos y son amorosos el uno con el otro. No es de extrañar que sintiera una sensación de pérdida personal cuando me dijeron que el Sr. Arthur Cassel respiró su último suspiro el 11 de Agosto de 2015 rodeado de todos sus hijos y su amada esposa la Sra. Dolly Cassel. En su muerte San Joaquín perdió a un gran y amado hijo. Para mí es realmente una pérdida personal de un amigo querido y un sabio. Que su alma descanse en paz.

Vatican Corner

Pope Francis' doctors have instructed him to "eat less pasta, walk more often, and lose a little weight to take some strain off his aching back." The doctor-ordered plan allows pasta just twice a week. According to his doctors, the Pope has steadily gained weight since arriving at the Vatican in 2013 due to his richer Italian diet and a decrease in exercise. An overbooked, stressful schedule has forced Francis to miss his daily walks, and the weight gain has made him fatigued and is causing him back issues. A healthier diet and more regular exercise should help with all of his health issues, according to the doctors. The carb cutback came just two weeks after the Pope expressed his love for pizza. In an interview in March 2015, Francis said that the two things he misses about his previous life when he wasn't so recognizable are: freedom and pizza. He longs for the tranquility of walking through the streets, or to go to a pizzeria to eat a good pizza. When the interviewer pointed out that he can request delivery to the Vatican, Pope Francis insisted, "But it is not the same." Days later a Naples pizza maker after hearing the Pope's comments, delivered a surprise pizza pie right to the popemobile as the pontiff drove through his city. Regarding the doctors' instructions, New York's Cardinal Dolan joking said that his boss should get new doctors and cut calories by taking the green (basil leaves) off his noodles. He joked that next time he is in Rome with the Pope, "it better be on one of those two days that (he's) eating pasta."

Maybe the Pope is following Cardinal Dolan's suggestion, because Pope Francis now has a new personal doctor and the Vatican City will have a new health services director. The current director is leaving his post and as such will no longer be Francis' personal physician. He will, however continue his service as private physician to the Pope Emeritus

Benedict XVI and will also hold onto other roles in the Vatican. The Vatican spokesman announced that the doctor was not ousted, he was simply ending his five-year term of service, and a rotation is to be considered normal. Francis's new personal physician is a 73-year-old internal medicine specialist, who has been a professor of medicine, authored dozens of academic articles, held several positions at a Roman hospital, including Chairman of Hepatology (management of diseases that affect the liver, gallbladder, pancreas etc.) and has been advising the Vatican City Dept. of Health. The new doctor will be accompanying Pope Francis when he visits the United States and Cuba next month.
