From the Pastor's Desk:

Among the many wonders at the world-famous San Diego Zoo is the giraffe compound. Enclosed in a natural habitat are several of these magnificent animals. They are every bit as tall and graceful as one might imagine. But they are far more massive and muscular than expected. Tall somehow seems to imply thin. However, these great beasts are anything but skinny. Their necks are thicker and their legs shorter and more powerful than one anticipates. It is not difficult to see why one kick could send an ambitious lion packing. Yet these massive, stately animals are enclosed in a small compound that seems far too restricting for their size and power. But no cage contains them. There are no bars or walls. There is but a simple, waterless moat, no deeper than the beast's knee, that circles the compound. Freedom is but a mere two steps away. But they are trapped. All of them are. For not one of them will take the risk of stepping down and across for fear of breaking its neck. [Don Martin, Team Think (New York: Penguin Books Ltd: 1993), p. 76.] I wonder how many of us are limited like that by our fears. Fear of rejection... fear of failure...fear of looking foolish...fear of being hurt...fear of being alone... fear of intimacy...fear of being taken advantage of ...fear of change...fear of being criticized. "Do not fear!" "Do not be afraid!" It is the urgent advice of Jesus to his disciples in today's Gospel.

An elderly woman named Maude had a window seat on a big 747 jetliner that had just taken off for Rome from New York. She had been saving for years to fulfill her dream to visit the Eternal City. But it was her first flight, and she was terrified. Even the stately presence of four bishops seated behind her didn't help. With fear and trembling she finally opened her eyes and peered out the window, just in time to see one of the plane's four engines break loose from the wing and disappear into the clouds. "We're going to die!" she cried out. "We're going to die!" The stewardess consulted with the pilot who announced to the passengers that everything was under control that they could fly back to New York and land safely with three engines. But Maude continued to cry out, "We're going to die!" The stewardess went to her and said, "Don't worry, my dear, God is with us. We have only three engines, but look, we have four bishops to pray for us." To which Maude replied, "I'd rather have four engines and three bishops!" In today's Gospel Jesus gives us three reasons why we should not be afraid and why we should have the courage of our Christian convictions.

A man has been visiting a therapist because he has had a fear of monsters living under his cot. The man has been seeing this doctor for months. Every time he would come in, the doctor would ask, "Have you made any progress?" Every time the man would say "No". The man decided to go and see another doctor. When he went back to his first doctor, the doctor asked, "Have you made any progress?" he said "Yes, I am feeling all better now!" The doctor asked, "What happened?" The man said, "I went to another doctor and he cured me in one session!" The doctor asked, "What did he tell you?" The man said "He just told me to cut off all four legs of my cot and leave no space for the monster".

Nota de nuestro pastor:

Entre las muchas maravillas del

mundialmente famoso zoológico de San Diego está el compuesto de la jirafa. Dentro de un hábitat natural están varios de estos magníficos animales. Cada uno son de poca altura y elegantes como uno podría imaginar. Pero son mucho más masivas y musculosas de lo esperado. Altura de alguna manera parece implicar delgado. Sin embargo, estas grandes bestias no son nada flacas. Sus cuellos son más gruesos y sus patas más cortas y más poderosas de lo que uno anticipa. No es difícil ver por qué una patada podría enviar a un león ambicioso fuera de la jaula. Sin embargo estos animales enormes, majestuosos están encerrados en un recinto pequeño que parece demasiado restrictivo para su tamaño y poder. Pero la jaula no la contiene. No hay barras ni paredes. Hay un foso sin agua, simple, no más allá de la rodilla de la bestia, que rodea el recinto. La libertad está solo a dos pasos. Pero se encuentran atrapadas. Todas ellas están. Ninguna de ellas tomará el riesgo de caminar hacia abajo y todo por miedo a romperse su cuello. [Equipo Pensador de Don Martin, (Nueva York: Penguin Books Ltd: 1993), p. 76.] Me pregunto cuántos de nosotros estamos limitados por nuestros miedos. Miedo al rechazo... miedo al fracaso...miedo de parecer tontos...miedo de ser lastimado...miedo de estar solo...miedo de intimididad...miedo de ser aprovechado...miedo al cambio... miedo de ser criticados. "¡No temáis!" "¡No tengáis miedo!" Es el consejo urgente de Jesús a sus discípulos en el Evangelio de hoy.

Una anciana llamada Maude tenía un asiento de ventana en un gran avión 747 que había salido hacia Roma desde Nueva York. Ella había estado ahorrando durante años para cumplir su sueño de visitar la Ciudad Eterna. Pero era su primer vuelo, y estaba aterrorizada. Incluso la presencia señorial de cuatro Obispos sentados detrás de ella no ayudaba. Con temor y temblor finalmente abrió sus ojos y miró por la ventana, justo a tiempo para ver a uno de los cuatro motores del avión soltarse del ala y desaparecer en las nubes. "Vamos a morir!" gritó. "Vamos a morir!" La azafata consultó con el piloto quien anunció a los pasajeros que todo estaba bajo control, que podrían volar de regreso a Nueva York y aterrizar con seguridad con tres motores. Pero Maude continuó clamando, "Vamos a morir!" La azafata fue a ella y dijo, "no te preocupes, querida, Dios está con nosotros. Tenemos sólo tres motores, pero mire, tenemos cuatro Obispos que rezan por nosotros." A lo que Maude respondió, "Prefiero tener cuatro motores y tres Obispos!" En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos da tres razones por qué no deberíamos tener miedo y por qué debemos tener la valentía de nuestras convicciones Cristianas.

Un hombre había estado visitando a un terapeuta porque tenía miedo de los monstruos que vivían debajo de su cama. El hombre había estado viendo a este médico durante meses. Cada vez que él iba, el médico le preguntaba, "¿has hecho algún progreso?" Cada vez el hombre decía "No". El hombre decidió ir a ver a otro doctor. Cuando regresó a su primer médico, el médico le preguntó, "¿has hecho algún progreso?", dijo "Sí, me estoy sintiendo mejor ahora!" El médico le preguntó, "¿Qué pasó?" El hombre dijo: ¡fui a otro doctor y él me curó en una sola sesión! El médico le preguntó, "¿qué te dijo?" El hombre dijo "Solo me dijo que cortara las cuatro patas de mi cama y no dejara espacio para el monstruo".

VATICAN CORNER

Pope Francis issued a statement June 13, 2017 inviting Christians and people of other faiths around the world to celebrate the first World Day of the Poor on the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time, which falls on November 19th this year. He wrote that “The poor are not a problem, they are a resource from which to draw as we strive to accept and practice in our lives the essence of the Gospel.” He wants us to love and help those in need and those that are marginalized, not only “with words but with deeds.” He wrote that God’s love for us “cannot go unanswered, it so sets our hearts on fire that all who experience it are led to love back, despite their limitations and sin.” He added that this can only happen if we welcome God’s grace so that we might be able to love not only God but also our neighbors. Francis’ wrote of the early Christian community and how it shared and helped the poor. They “realized that being a disciple of Jesus meant demonstrating fraternity and solidarity, in obedience to the Master’s proclamation that the poor are blessed and heirs to the Kingdom of heaven.” But he wrote that there were times when the Church failed to fully heed this appeal, and instead assumed a worldly way of thinking. Yet the Holy Spirit called them to keep their gaze fixed on what is essential, and inspired men and women to devote their lives to helping the poor. One example is the life of St. Francis of Assisi. Pope Francis insists that acts of generosity and kindness must not be limited to occasional volunteer work, but must also strive to find the true origins of injustice and lead to a true encounter with the poor. Francis invites the faithful to “touch” the body of Christ “in the suffering bodies of the poor,” not hesitating to embrace them and meet their gaze, “their outstretched hand is also an invitation to step out of our certainties and comforts, and to acknowledge the value of poverty in itself.” It is Pope Francis’ wish that the week preceding the World Day of the Poor, Christian communities will make every effort to create moments of encounter and friendship, solidarity and concrete assistance. “They can invite the poor and volunteers to take part together in the Eucharist on that Sunday. If there are poor people where we live who seek protection and assistance, let us draw close to them. Let us welcome them as honored guests at our table.” At the heart of all the many concrete initiatives carried out on this day should always be prayer. “Let us not forget that the “Our Father” is the prayer of the poor. Our asking for bread expresses our entrustment to God for our basic needs in life. Everything that Jesus taught us in this prayer expresses and brings together the cry of all who suffer from life’s uncertainties and the lack of what they need.” Pope Francis will preside at the Mass in St. Peter’s Basilica during the November celebration, with poor people and volunteers. After the liturgy, he will invite 500 of the poor to the Paul VI Audience Hall at the Vatican to join him for lunch.
