From the Pastor's Desk:

Why do Catholics believe in the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

1. Jesus said, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

2. "My flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink."

3. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life and I will raise him on the last day."

4. Jesus instituted the Holy Eucharist during his Last Supper.

5. Jesus commanded his disciples to repeat it in his memory

6. "Nothing is impossible for God."

St. Philip Neri saw someone leaving Church right after Communion, and he sent servers with candles and bells to accompany the man. The guy stormed back into the Church and confronted the priest. "What kind of joke is this?" he demanded. St. Philip Neri said, "It's no joke. The rules of the liturgy say the Blessed Sacrament should be treated with reverence. You left the Church immediately with no prayer of thanksgiving. You were carrying the Blessed Sacrament within you. So I asked the boys to accompany you to honor Him." After Communion you and I are tabernacles - the physical presence of Jesus continues in us for a brief time. That's why we have the Communion hymn, a time of silence, the Communion Prayer - and even the announcements - to build up the Body of Christ in practical ways. I encourage you to use well the time after Communion to say thanks, to express your gratitude. (Fr. Phil Bloom)

St. Padre Pio's prayer of thanksgiving after Mass

"Stay with me, Lord, for it is necessary to have You present so that I do not forget You. You know how easily I abandon You.

Stay with me, Lord, because I am weak and I need Your strength, that I may not fall so often.

Stay with me, Lord, for You are my life, and without You, I am without fervor.

Stay with me, Lord, for You are my light, and without You, I am in darkness.

Stay with me, Lord, to show me Your will.

Stay with me, Lord, so that I hear Your voice and follow You.

Stay with me, Lord, for I desire to love You very much, and always be in Your company.

Stay with me, Lord, if You wish me to be faithful to You.

Stay with me, Lord, for as poor as my soul is, I want it to be a place of consolation for You, a nest of love.

Stay with me, Jesus, for it is getting late, the day is coming to a close, and life passes; death, judgment, eternity approach. It is necessary to renew my strength.

Nota de nuestro pastor:

Por qué los Católicos creen en la presencia real de Jesús en la Eucaristía.

1. Jesús dijo, "yo soy el pan vivo que descendió del cielo. Quien come de este pan vivirá para siempre; y el pan que yo daré es mi carne para la vida del mundo".

2. "Mi carne es verdadera comida y mi sangre es verdadera bebida".

3. "Quien come mi carne y bebe mi sangre tiene vida eterna y yo le levantaré en el último día".

4. Jesús instituyó la Eucaristía durante su Última Cena.

5. Jesús ordenó a sus discípulos a repetirlo en su memoria.

6. "Nada es imposible para Dios".

San Felipe Neri vio a alguien irse de la Iglesia justo después de la Comunión, y envió a servidores con velas y campanas para acompañar al hombre. El hombre irrumpió en la Iglesia y confrontó al Sacerdote. "¿Qué clase de broma es esta?" exigió. San Felipe Neri dijo, "no es ninguna broma. Las reglas de la Liturgia dice que el Santísimo Sacramento debe tratarse con reverencia. Te fuiste de la Iglesia inmediatamente sin ninguna oración de acción de gracias. Tú llevas el Santísimo Sacramento dentro de ti. Así que le pedí a los muchachos que te acompañaran para honrarlo." Después de la Comunión tú y yo somos tabernáculos - la presencia física de Jesús continúa en nosotros por un breve tiempo. Es por eso que tenemos el himno Comunión, un tiempo de silencio, la oración de Comunión - y aún los anuncios - para construir el Cuerpo de Cristo en maneras prácticas. Yo te animo a utilizar bien el tiempo después de la Comunión para decir gracias, para expresar tu gratitud. (P. Phil Bloom)

-----
Oración de acción de gracias después de la Misa del Padre Pio

"Quédate conmigo, Señor, porque es necesario tenerte presente para que no te olvide. Tú sabes cuán fácilmente yo te abandono.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, porque soy débil y necesito Tu fuerza, para que yo no caiga tan a menudo.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, porque Tú eres mi vida y sin ti, yo estoy sin fervor.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, Tú eres mi luz y sin Ti, estoy en la oscuridad.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, muéstrame Tu voluntad.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, para que escuche Tu voz y seguirte.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, porque deseo amarte mucho y estar siempre en Tu compañía.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, si deseas que yo sea fiel a Ti.

Quédate conmigo, Señor, porque tan pobre como es mi alma, quiero que sea un lugar de consuelo para Ti, un nido de amor.

Quédate conmigo, Jesús, porque se está haciendo tarde, el día está llegando a su fin, y pasa la vida; muerte, juicio, la eternidad se aproxima. Es necesario que renueve mis fuerzas."

VATICAN CORNER

Under Pope

Francis, more than ever before, the Vatican has adopted an open door policy regarding politicians, rock stars and famous people who want to meet with him, regardless of their history or personal religious beliefs. An example is the 2016 meeting of Pope Francis with former president of France, Nicolas Sarkozy, and his wife Carla Bruni.-Sarkozy. In 2010 when Benedict XVI was Pope, Mrs. Sarkozy, a former model who was sometimes photographed nude, was told she was not welcome at the Vatican. Another example is the hour long meeting Cuba's infamous dictator Raul Castro, brother of Fidel, was able to obtain with Francis at the Vatican. For better or worse, Pope Francis has become somewhat of a pop star, and politicians and celebrities clamor for a meeting, a blessing or even just a wave from him. The reasons why they want to meet the Pope are as complex as the people themselves. Some celebrities are looking to talk to the Pope about issues or causes of particular interest to them. This is particularly true of world leaders who treat the Pope as another head of state. Some celebrities have their own special, charitable projects, and an audience with the Pope may help boost the view of those charities, giving them more importance and additional publicity. The famous rock star Bono met with Pope John II in 1999 in an effort to ask the wealthy countries of the world to cancel the debt of third-world nations. Director Angelina Jolie met with Pope Francis to screen her faith based movie Unbroken in 2015 and to get some press coverage. Others celebrities and politicians who meet with the Pope are deeply faithful Catholics themselves and to meet with their spiritual leader is a big deal. In the last couple of years, a very many world leader have come to the Vatican and met with Francis, and some celebrities include: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Richard Gere, Salma Hayek, Martin Scorsese, Stephen Hawking, Mark Zuckerberg, George Clooney and wife Amal, Andrea Bocelli, Tim Cook, Joseph Fiennes, Lionel Messi, Oprah Winfrey, Eva Longoria, Mark Wahlberg and Leonardo DiCaprio. Recently President Donald Trump met with Pope Francis and that was the continuation of a tradition started with President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1950. Eisenhower wasn't the first US president to meet the Pope, but each president has done so since then. The Catholic Church has become the largest religious denomination in the US, with over 78 million members, and it makes sense to keep relations between the White House and the Holy See as neighborly as possible. Whatever motivates someone to meet the Pope, perhaps the real reason can run far deeper than they even realize. It might not be just to meet an admirable man, but to touch someone so close to God on earth.

Everyday Stewardship

When I was a child I can remember stopping by my parish or another local Catholic church to just spend some time in prayer before the holy Eucharist. We didn't have exposition and adoration much in those days, but we were keenly aware of the presence of Jesus in the tabernacle. I would sometimes stare at the lighted candle near it and know that Jesus was alive.

I had never heard someone speak about a stewardship way of life back then. If I am honest, the primary message I heard back in those days was along the lines of we need to be as good as we are able. Sacrifice was only at Lent, disciples were people in the Bible, and generosity mostly had to do with the collection basket and the poor box at the church entrance. I even went to Catholic schools! Maybe the message of stewardship was there somewhere packaged differently and I just missed it. It wasn't until I was an adult, and after acquiring two theology degrees, that I understood both with my head and my heart what a stewardship way of life really meant. But I look back at those days and I realize that the groundwork was laid for me to understand these things. It was those times before the holy Eucharist that I began to understand true sacrifice. It was at those times that I began to understand how actions and realities that seem so simple to the human eye can be so profound. And it was at those times that I began to see that true love knows no bounds. What does the holy Eucharist say to you about stewardship? Maybe today is a great time to reflect on your answer.
