United in faith and guided by the Holy Spirit

From the Pastor's Desk:

Some of the quotes, sayings and speeches are so wonderful and thought provoking that we remembered them forever. One such speech I heard was spoken by our major seminary rector on the day of the Sacerdotal Silver Jubilee celebration of one of our seminary professors. In his speech our Rector said, "On this day I am a bit confused. Whom should I congratulate?! Should I congratulate Fr.Noel for being a priest for the last 25 years or should I congratulate the People and the students for tolerating him for the last 25 years!" When I heard that speech, well, I laughed so loud. Today as I celebrate the 25th year of my own Sacerdotal Silver Jubilee, I ask the same question to myself in slightly different way. To whom should I be thankful for this privilege of being a priest for the last 25 years? Should I be thankful to my congregation which has spent so much money to educate and train me or to the people who have shown towards me so much of love and affection all these years of my priesthood or to God who has tolerated and put up with all my imperfections in all these 25 years! My own answer to this question is in the reverse order – that is starting with God. But I am reminded of the words of Jesus to St. Paul "My grace is sufficient for you." (2 Cor 12:9) Certainly, there are so many areas in my life where I need to grow to become truly a good priest. But I know that it is the Lord's hand I hold. I may struggle and falter at times. But as long as continue to hold his hand, he will certainly lead me to realize my goal of becoming a good priest in His eyes.

Since it is the Sacerdotal Silver Jubilee of the pastor, a few suggested that the parish should celebrate it with a Silver Jubilee mass and food for everyone. A good idea. Never the less I felt that such a celebration would finally lead to some expenditure for the parish. Instead, why not we celebrate with a dinner dance and make some money for the parish which we can use for the renovation of the hall. And that's how the idea of Dinner Dance was born. In spite of the short duration of the sale of tickets, 287 people purchased the tickets for the Dinner Dance. The chairperson of the event Mrs. Edna Valderrama alone sold more than 200 tickets! Because this year's Dinner Dance was not just a fund raising event but also a Jubilee celebration, special attention was given to the quality of the food even though we knew it would cost us a lot. No wonder everyone who came for the Dinner Dance was well appreciate of the type of food served, Music played and the hospitality that was shown. The credit for organizing such a wonderful Dinner Dance celebration should be given to the chairperson Ms. Edna Valderrama and to the members of the Events Committee. At the end of the event, instead of spending the money of the parish for the event, the parish ended up making a profit of $4,500 which will be used for the renovation of the hall. A special word of thanks to everyone who purchased the ticket and participated in the event.

Nota de nuestro pastor:

Algunas de las frases, dichos y discursos son tan maravillosas y estimulantes que las recordamos para siempre. Un tal discurso que oí fue dicho por nuestro Rector del Seminario Mayor en el día de la celebración de las bodas de plata sacerdotal de uno de nuestros profesores del seminario. En su discurso nuestro Rector dijo, "en este día estoy un poco confundido. ¿A quién debo felicitar? Debo felicitar al Padre Noel por ser Sacerdote los últimos 25 años, o debo felicitar al pueblo y los estudiantes por tolerarle los últimos 25 años?" Cuando oí aquel discurso me reí tan fuerte. Hoy celebro 25 años, mis bodas de plata sacerdotales, me pregunto la misma pregunta a mí mismo de una manera ligeramente diferente. ¿Con quién debería estar agradecido por ese privilegio de ser Sacerdote los últimos 25 años? Debo de estar agradecido con mi congregación que ha gastado mucho dinero para formar y capacitarme, o a las personas que han demostrado tanto amor y cariño hacia mí todos estos años de mi sacerdocio y a Dios que ha tolerado y aguantado todas mis imperfecciones en estos 25 años? Mi propia respuesta a esta pregunta está en el orden inverso, que es a partir de Dios. Pero recuerdo las palabras de Jesús a San Pablo "Te basta con mi gracia". (2 Cor 12:9) Ciertamente, hay muchas áreas en mi vida donde tengo que crecer para convertirme en verdaderamente un buen Sacerdote. Pero sé que es la mano de Dios que sostengo. Yo puedo luchar y fallar a veces. Pero mientras que continúe sosteniendo su mano, sin duda me llevará a realizar mi meta de ser un buen Sacerdote ante Sus ojos.

Ya que es el Jubileo Sacerdotal de Plata del Pastor, algunos sugirieron que la parroquia celebrara con una Misa de Bodas de Plata y comida para todos. Una buena idea. Sin embargo, sentí que tal celebración finalmente llevaría a algunos gastos a la parroquia. En su lugar, por qué no celebrar con una cena-baile y hacer algo de dinero para la parroquia que podríamos usar para la renovación del Salón Social. Y así es cómo nació la idea de la cena-baile. A pesar del corto tiempo para la venta de entradas, 287 personas compraron los boletos para la cena-baile. El Presidente del evento, la Sra. Edna Valderrama, vendió más de 200 boletos! Ya que la cena-baile este año no solamente fue un evento de recaudación de fondos, sino también una celebración del Jubileo, se prestó atención especial a la calidad de la comida a pesar de que sabíamos que nos costaría mucho. No es de extrañar que todo el mundo que vino a la cena-baile apreciara el tipo de comida, música y la hospitalidad que se demostró. El crédito para la organización de tan maravillosa celebración de la cena-baile se debería dar a la Presidenta Sra. Edna Valderrama y a los miembros de la Comisión de Eventos. Al final del evento, en lugar de gastar el dinero de la parroquia, la parroquia terminó recibiendo un beneficio de $4,500 que se utilizará para la renovación del Salón Social. Una palabra especial de gracias a todos los que adquirieron boletos y participaron en el evento.

Everyday Stewardship

Many young people want to make a path for themselves in life without the help and guidance of others. My own young adult son oftentimes refuses assistance because he feels that he must learn to go it alone and have his achievements based solely upon his effort. However, few truly get anywhere of circumstance without the aid of others.

The body of Christ only functions well when we move together and help each other. Unfortunately, too often parts of the body seek to do their own thing and do not integrate with the other parts. We use our gifts in ways that are only focused on our own gains and our own being. But be mindful, our gifts exist in us to be cultivated and shared with God and his people.

In the same manner, with Jesus as the head of this body, he is there for us as well. In Jesus we find our rest and assistance with our burdens. I cannot imagine life without the compassion and aid of our God. If it isn't bad enough that some people fail to lean on their brothers and sisters, some of them fail to ever turn to God.

This is never good stewardship. A stewardship way of life seeks to share and integrate with others, especially Jesus. We have been created for community. If we take seriously our discipleship, a true relationship with Jesus always beckons us into community with other believers. Here we are strongest. Here we are the most fruitful. Here we are Christ's body on earth.

VATICAN CORNER

On April 10, 2017 it was the first grand opening of a laundromat by a pope. Inside the “People of Peace Center”, a former hospital complex near the Vatican in the central Trastevere area of Rome, Pope Francis celebrated his latest gift to the city’s poor and homeless. It is a Vatican sponsored facility where people struggling with extreme poverty can wash and dry a load of laundry for free. The facility is run by the Rome-based Community of Sant’Egidio, who have for over a decade been assisting Rome’s homeless. There are six washers and six dryers, of the latest generation, along with several irons, all donated by the Whirlpool Company, and a free supply of detergent and fabric softener, donated by the Procter & Gamble Company. For those living on the street, one of the many difficulties is to be able to wash, dry and iron their clothes and blankets. The laundry is a response to Pope Francis’s invitation to give concrete signs of solidarity to our brothers and sisters in need. Pope Francis’ Office of Papal Charities run by Archbishop Konrad Krajewski, has already set up showers, a barber shop, a dormitory, a healthcare clinic and a pharmacy for the poor in Rome, but what was missing was a laundry service. Krajewski explained that “one of the greatest difficulties for those who live on the streets, along with finding food, a place to spend the night, and public baths, is to wash and dry the clothes they wear, in many cases the only ones they own”. “The laundry is meant to “restore dignity to so many people who are our brothers and sisters.” Krajewski is a well-known figure among Rome’s poor, often personally delivering aid. He follows the Pope’s instructions to go out into the City and find those who need help, and personally brings food to homeless shelters, delivers thermal sleeping bags to those sleeping on the streets in the winter, and organizes social activities such as concerts and museum visits for the needy. A U.S. volunteer organization called Laundry Love may have been part of the inspiration for the new Roman laundry. Episcopal Bishop Diane Jardine Bruce of Los Angeles says she shared the Laundry Love idea with Pope Francis. In the U.S. Laundry Love has partnered with local laundromats to offer free services at certain hours to people in need. Or sometimes volunteers pay for someone’s laundry, or sometimes the proceeds from certain machines go to the non-profit organization. The hope is that Pope Francis’ laundromat might inspire others to also help. Throughout history there have been many popes who have helped the poor of Rome. The famous Trevi Fountain, for example, was commissioned by Pope Urban VIII to bring fresh water to the poor of the City.
